

The Sled

By: B. Marker

Set 7 Book 13

Focus Sound: Consonant Blends

Fred the frog wants to get to the water. "I want to hop on a lily pad," says Fred.

Fred gets on a red sled. He skids down a big hill.

Tram the otter wants to get on the sled too.

"I want to swim with the fish. Can I get on the sled with you?" asks Tram.

"Yes," says Fred. Fred skids to the left. Tram gets on.

Brett the bobcat wants to nap on top of the big rocks in the water.

"It is such a great spot to rest," says Brett. "Can I get on the sled with you?" asks Brett.

"Yes," says Fred. "Yes," says Tram. Brett gets on the sled.

Kel is a fox. She hit her leg on a stump. "I can not run," says Kel. "I have a bad leg." She is sad. "I want to get a drink of water. Can I get on the sled too?"

There are no spots left.

"I will get off," says Brett the bobcat.

"I will get off," says Tram the otter.

"I will get off too," says Fred the frog.

"That is so kind," says Kel.

They help Kel get on the sled. She gets to the water and has a drink.

They are glad they can help Kel. The End.
