

TALE TOWN'S DETECTIVE AGENCY HEADQUARTERS

Detective, your phone is ringing, answer it . . .

Prince Charming

"Detective, this is urgent. I need your help immediately! My love, my poor darling Snow White has been poisoned into a deep sleep again! She really must stop eating food from strangers."

You pull out your detective notepad and request Charming to calm down and explain the situation in more detail.

"I may have been a little late delivering her some flowers and chocolates for Valentine's Day. I was busy with a few royal duties this morning and forgot about the special occasion. I finally realized it was Valentine's Day by lunchtime, so I ran to the Candy Store and Florist to pick up some of Snow White's favorite chocolates and flowers. I visited her around 5:00 p.m., and when she didn't answer the door, I thought she was angry with me. I kept knocking for a while, and then I started to sing. She usually loves my singing, so I knew something was wrong when she still didn't answer. I walked around her cottage, and through the kitchen window, I saw her lying on the ground, surrounded by bananas, cookies, and an open box of chocolates. She is still breathing and snoring loudly, but she won't wake up. Please, I need you to investigate this case!"

Prince Charming

You agree to meet Charming at Snow White's cottage within the hour.

On the following pages you will be visiting locations and discovering clues. As you complete each page, go over your possible suspects list to see if any information discovered eliminates a character. The last suspect remaining is the one who poisoned Snow White.

1. VISIT LOCATION: SNOW WHITE'S COTTAGE

Prince Charming

"She won't wake up! I don't know what to do. Look over here, detective. I found this box of chocolates. It is full, with only one chocolate missing from the whole box. Very unusual indeed. She would normally eat most of them straight away."

"Look at Snow White's hand. Her fingers have smears of melted chocolate. I think the one chocolate missing is the one she ate; it must be what poisoned her! The bananas and cookies seem untouched."

Doc the Dwarf

"As I mentioned to the detective earlier on the phone, she really must stop eating food from strangers."

"But Charming, look at the lid of the box! The card on top says that the chocolates are from you!"

Prince Charming

"Do you think that it could be Snow White's jealous stepmother, Regina, the Queen of Hearts, again?"

"I didn't send this box. These smell like strawberry-filled chocolates; I usually buy Snow caramel-filled chocolates."

2. VISIT LOCATION: CASTLE OF HEARTSRegina, the Queen of Hearts

"Take them away! Lock them up! I don't have time for Prince Charming or this so-called brilliant detective!"

"Why did you poison Snow White again? What must we do to save her this time?"

"Hahaha! As little as I care about your precious Snow White, I can tell you that it wasn't me who did it this time. I've got better things to do, including not helping you. But, good to know that I am the fairest in the land once again."

Prince Charming

"I don't believe you. Tell us the cure immediately or else . . ."

Regina

"Or else what? Prove my guilt, then we'll see, but until then, my guards shall take you away on the count of three. I'll give you something extra to grieve if you do not leave. Now be gone before I send you to the dungeon below; it's been quite smelly in there lately, too!"

3. VISIT LOCATION: G & G Sweet Treats Shop

"No, the super caramel chocolate is too sweet, and the lemon curd chocolate is too sour, but this bubbly milk chocolate tastes just right. So, Gretel, please make more of those bubbly milk ones."

GretelPrince Charming

"But, we need a variety to sell. Not everyone dislikes super sweet chocolate or sour chocolate."

"Wait a moment, Gretel, we'll talk about this later. That wonderful Prince Charming is here with that detective."

"Hello, I need to know who recently ordered a box of strawberry-filled chocolates from here?"

"Oh, Charming, that is difficult to track because of Valentine's Day. We sold many boxes of chocolates over the past two days; remembering all of the customers and what they ordered is a blur. Sorry, I'm not much help, detective."

"We didn't have much of the strawberry-filled boxes, so maybe we could check out our transactions and see if any names pop up."

GoldilocksGretel

"I don't know what I did with the list. The shop has been so busy!"

"I'll help you look for it. I'm pretty sure it is somewhere near the cash register."

4. VISIT LOCATION: ROSE'S FLORIST SHOP

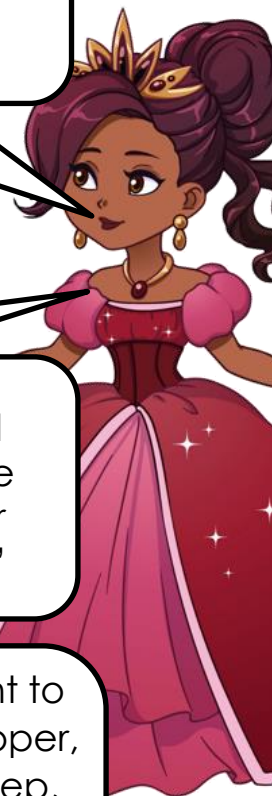

Prince Charming

"Hi Aurora, do you have poisonous plants in your shop?"

"Yes, lots of them are poisonous, but you know that you probably shouldn't eat the flowers, Charming."

Aurora

"I know that! Are there any flowers with the poison to send someone to sleep?"

"Probably not in here. I just look after the flowers, sell them, and know not to eat them. A couple of years ago, I pricked my finger on a spindle of a spinning wheel, which cursed me to sleep for one hundred years. Maleficent tried to have her revenge on me all because she wasn't invited to my party."

Prince Charming

"Yikes, I probably should have invited Maleficent to my birthday party; she can be such a party pooper, though. Someone poisoned Snow White into sleep, and she won't wake up. I'm hoping that we can find a cure if we can figure out what the poison is. The brilliant detective beside me is working hard on solving who did this to Snow White."

Aurora

"You should check with Belle in Tale Town Library. She might be able to help you find a book to discover a cure."

5. VISIT LOCATION: TALE TOWN LIBRARYBelle

"Oh, chocolates, yummy! I love these! So sweet of you to bring these delightful treats, Charming!"

zzz...

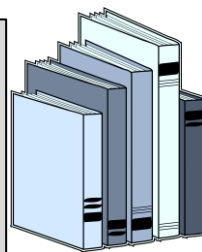

But, before Charming mentions the word poison, Belle eats one of the chocolates. Then, with a big yawn, Belle points to aisle six and collapses to the ground; she begins to snore loudly!

Prince Charming

"No, don't eat those! I'm pretty certain they are all poisoned!"

"Uh oh!"

You and Charming search aisle six for a book that might help Snow White and Belle wake up. Finally, after looking for a long time, you discover a book called 'The Complete Guide to Curses and Cures – 2nd Edition, written by Glinda the Good Witch of the North.' You open the book to read about sleeping curses.
