The Birthday Bird

The day of my birthday party was hard to forget. It was the first time we made a plan to play golf. Five pals came with me to the Pitch and Putt.

We each got a club and were third in line. Just then, a huge, white bird did glide from some birch tree to land on my hat. Some birthday gift! The bird did seem thirsty, so it went to get a drink by the birdbath. "I think the bird is gone," said Burt.

Just when we were to start the golf game at the first hole, that huge bird did land on my club! Why did the bird like me? Was it the bird's birthday, too? We kept the game on, and that quirky bird came for the trip with me to all nine holes. At least I got a hole in one. That was some birthday!
