Dear Educator,

Thank you for your purchase! This is a set for practice with the sounds of IE. It is compatible with OG or other reading interventions. This resource may be used in a 1:1 setting, small group or even whole class, depending on your needs.

NOTE: Please pay special attention to the Table of Contents. This is the order of instruction I recommend. It progresses from sounds and words, to sentences and a fully decodable story. Games are included at the end to use at any point in your instruction. They make great review centers.

If you enjoyed using this set, please be sure to check out my other multi-sensory skill practice sets. I'll be adding more phonics packs each month!

Thank you so much for choosing my store for your classroom needs. I do appreciate your patronage. Please be sure to leave feedback on this resource. It helps me, future customers, and you'll earn credit towards new purchases!

Sincerely,

Emily Gibbons, The Literacy Nest

Playing Outfield

The day of the big game started out cloudy, windy and rainy. Ronnie would not be happy to play in the outfield if it was muddy. But the sun came out after some time passed, and it looked like the game would still be on.

Ronnie's Mom gave him a yummy brownie for a snack right in the car and said, "Have a good game, Ronnie!" Ronnie smiled at Mom and said, "Thanks, Mom. And thanks for the brownie. Wish me luck!"
Ronnie took a catcher's mitt and game bag and ran to the field.

Ronnie's coach sent him to play outfield for the big game. All his pals had joined the team to play with him. Scottie played first base. Charlie played infield, and Connie played second base. "We need a big win!" Ronnie exclaimed to his pals.

Ronnie, Scottie, Charlie and Connie played hard that day. They ended up with a win of ten to five. All the baseball pals high-fived after the game.

A Birthday Pie

Each year, I ask for a pumpkin pie on my birthday. I bet it's odd to some when they hear I would rather have pie than cake, but it's my wish and my birthday!

My six year old sister, Vie, asked Mom and Dad to help bake my birthday, pumpkin pie this year. I kept thinking, "Hmmm. Why does Vie wish to bake my pie for me? She enjoyed many mud pies, NOT pumpkin pies." I gulped hard when Mom and Dad asked me if she could try it. So I let her.

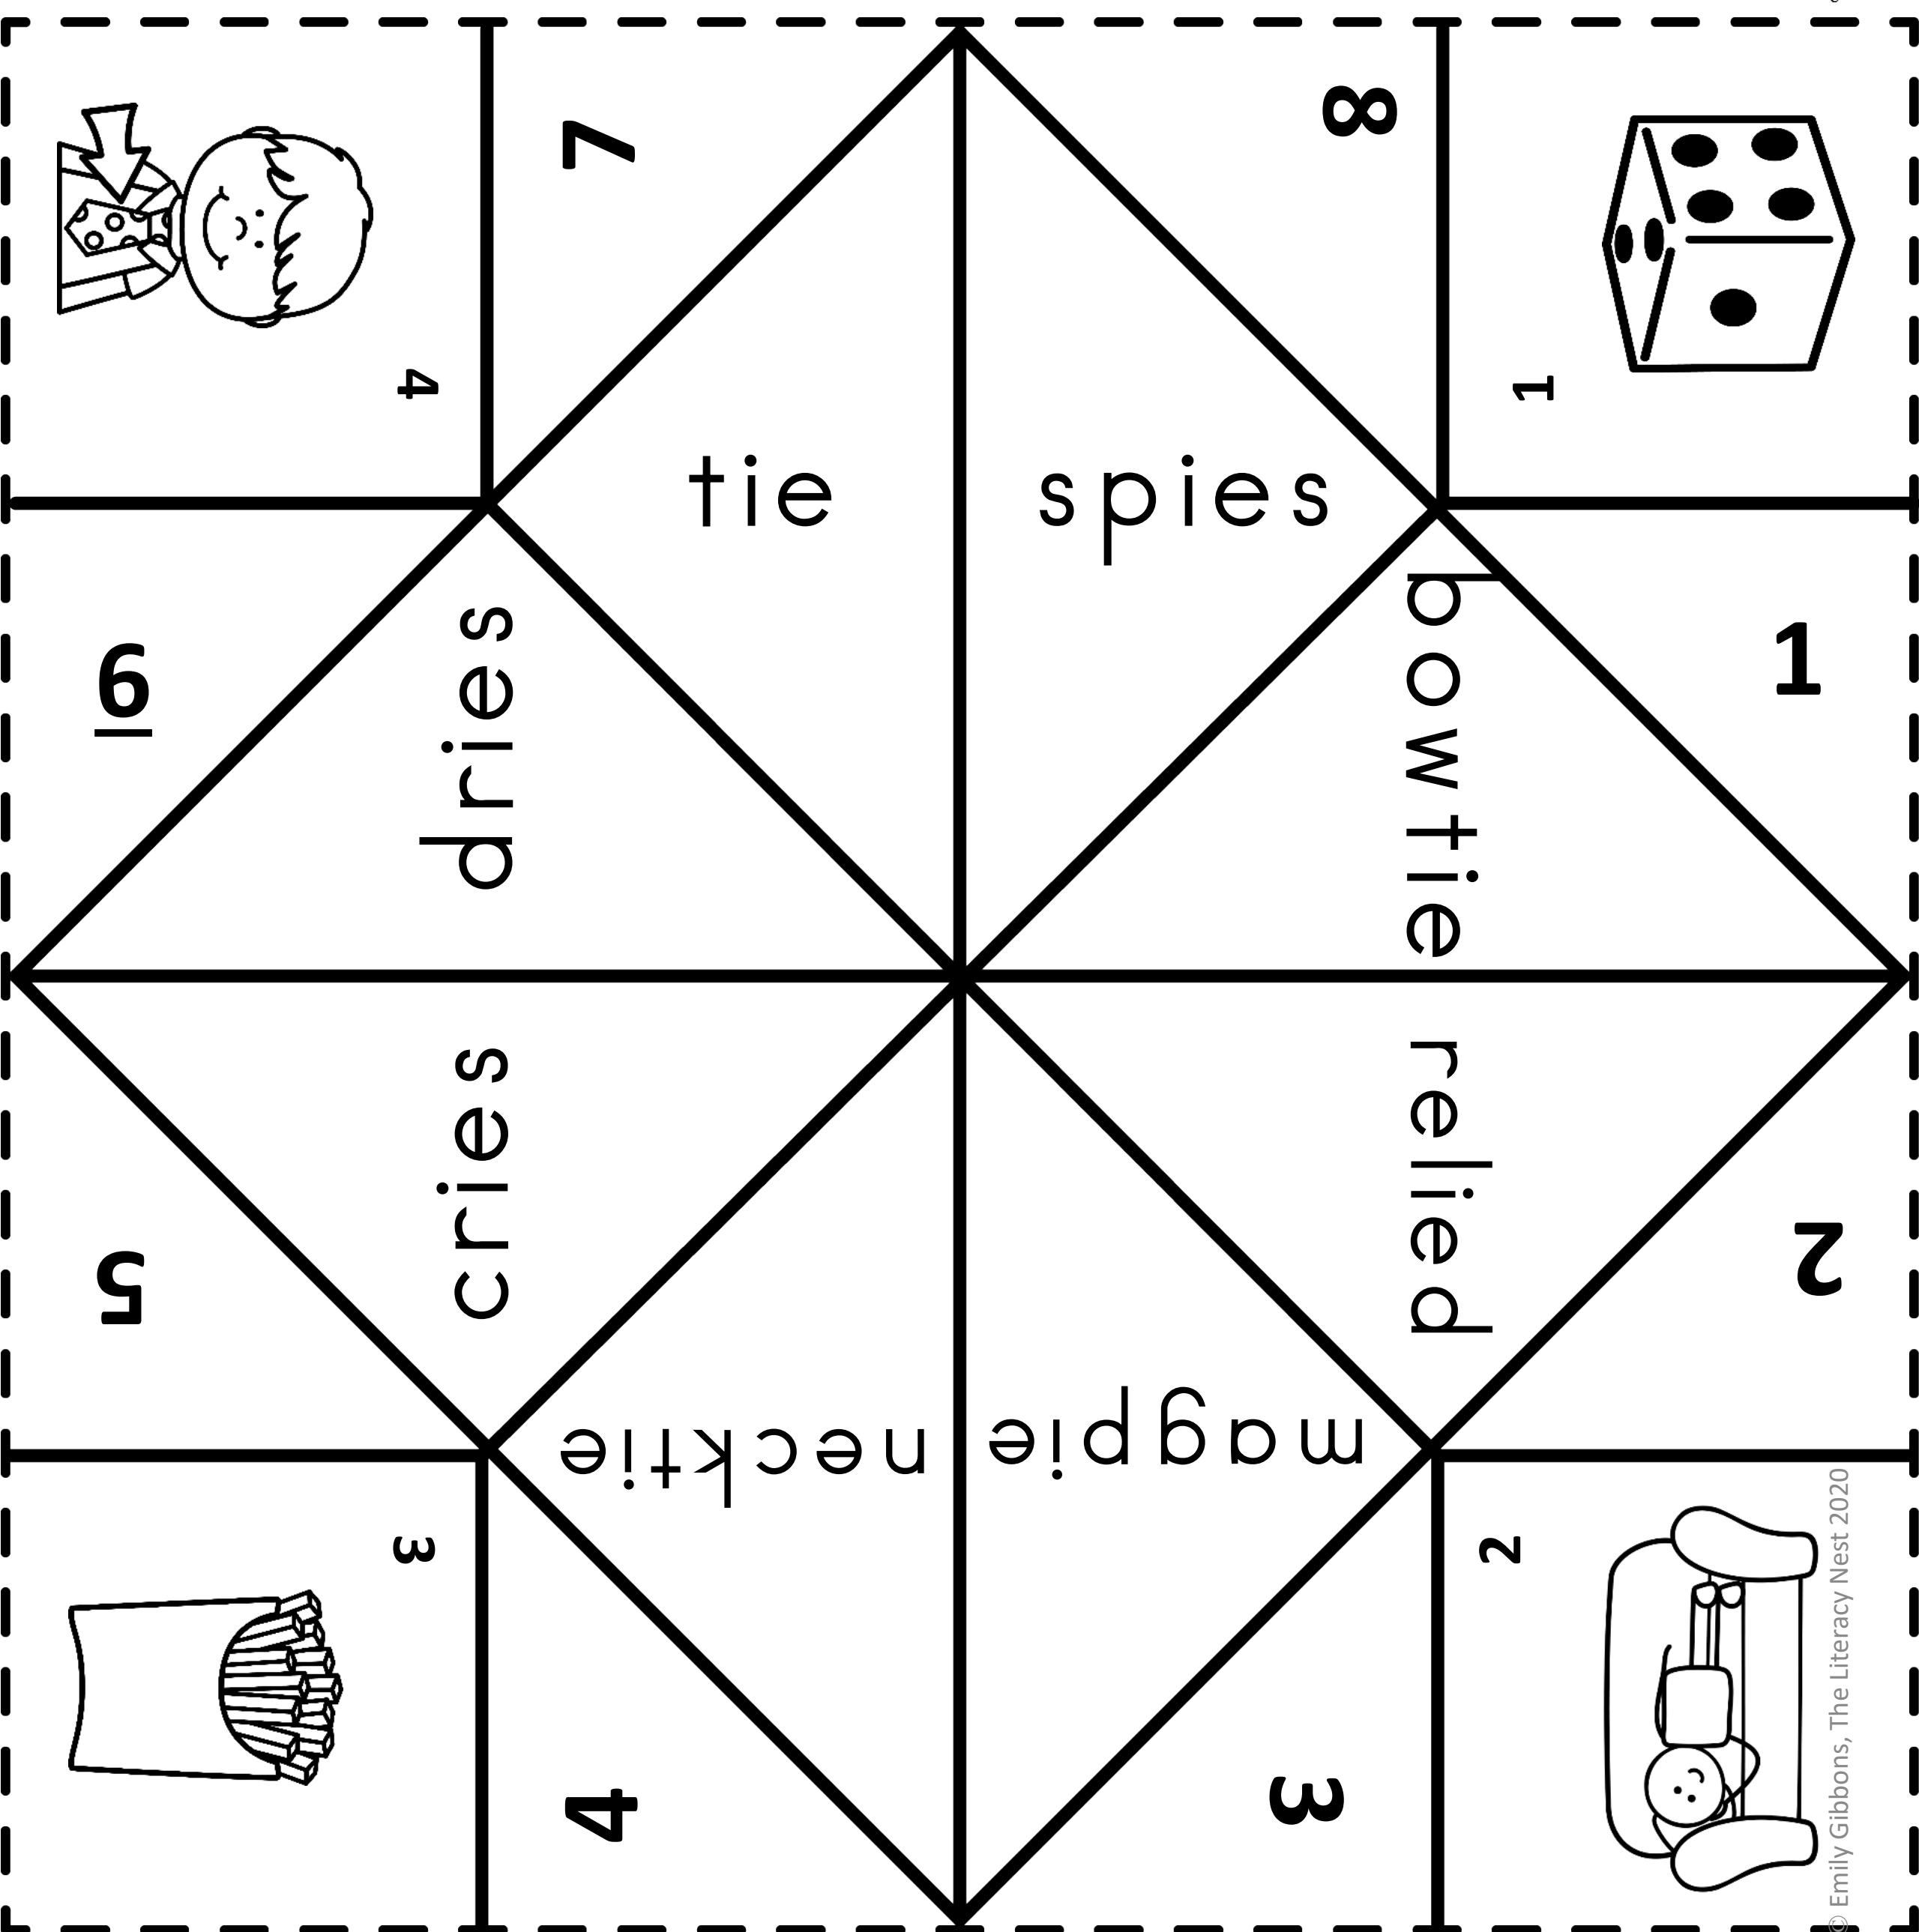

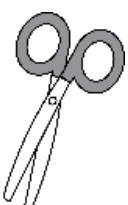

I tried not to peek in when I spied my sister trying to bake my pie. "Let me have one look at my pumpkin pie!" I exclaimed. But Mom and Vie yelled, "NO!"

When the pie was cooked, I ran in to see how it came out. It looked just like each birthday, pumpkin pie I had. I gave Vie a huge hug for the pie. She pried herself back and said, "And I did NOT bake the pie with mud!" Thank goodness for pumpkin pie.
