Dear Educator,

Thank you for your purchase! This is a set for practice with soft c words, as well as a review of hard versus soft c. It is compatible with OG or other reading interventions. This resource may be used in a 1:1 setting, small group or even whole class, depending on your needs.

NOTE: Please pay special attention to the Table of Contents. This is the order of instruction I recommend. It progresses from sounds and words, to sentences and a fully decodable story. Games are included at the end to use at any point in your instruction. They make great review centers.

If you enjoyed using this set, please be sure to check out my other multi-sensory skill practice sets.

Thank you so much for choosing my store for your classroom needs. I do appreciate your patronage. Please be sure to leave feedback on this resource. It helps me, future customers, and you'll earn credit towards new purchases!

Sincerely,

Emily Gibbons, The Literacy Nest

Cindy and Her Cat

Cindy had a cat named Cecil. Cecil slept in a crate next to Cindy's bed in the corner of her bedroom. There was a cozy carpet in the crate for Cecil to curl up and sleep on.

Each day, Cecil woke Cindy up by licking her face. It had been going on for years, so Cindy didn't care. Cindy would get out of bed to feed Cecil. Cecil would race to her bowl and glance at it. If she could speak, she'd say, "Fill 'er up, Cindy!"

After Cindy and Cecil ate, Cindy would grab a fleece coat and a fancy leash. The two would go for a stroll in the city to a local cat club. Some would stare at Cecil on a fancy leash and think it was odd. Some would glance at Cecil and think it was cute.

When the two would arrive at the cat club, Cecil would get to play with the toy mice, while Cindy spoke with fellow cat owners. Cindy and Cecil enjoyed a life of peace and quiet.

Ice Cream Sundae

Materials: Each player gets 1 bowl game board, and 1 set of soft c ice cream scoop cards.

Prepare a tray of colored sprinkles, sand or rice, and the spinner with a pencil and paperclip.

Your goal: To build the biggest ice cream sundae.

1. Decide who will go first.
2. Players take turns spinning.
3. If you land on...
 - Spoon- Take one ice cream scoop away from your bowl.
 - Sprinkles- Choose one ice cream scoop card to read, trace and spell out loud in the tray of sprinkles. Then you can add it to your bowl! ☺
 - Scoop-Choose one ice cream scoop card. Read it, sky write it, and add it to your bowl.
 - Whipped cream- Spin again.

* The first player to fill up their bowl with all the ice cream scoops wins!

Cookies or Ice Cream?

Materials: 1 game board, and 1 set word cards (shuffled), dry erase board, marker and eraser

1. Decide who will go first.
2. Players take turns being readers or spellers.
Place the cards face down.
3. Reader: Choose a card and read it out loud to the speller. Speller: Repeat the word and spell it out loud as you write it on a white board.
(If a mistake is made, the reader will ask the speller to try again.)
4. Then... If the word has hard c, the speller says, "Cookies," and taps the cookies.
5. If the word has soft c, the speller says, "Ice cream," and taps the ice cream cone.
6. Switch roles back and forth, repeating directions 3-5 until you reach the end of the deck.

Spin-It

To Play:

1. Spin the spinner.
2. Choose a picture that has the same sound as the space you landed on, and say the word.
3. Cross that picture out.
4. To win: Be the first to color every picture on your whole grid.
